Kelly has worked in the recruitment space for several years in resourcing and working in marketing for a period of 6 years.

Within recruitment, Kelly has worked with a number of household-known tech companies mainly within Software Development and Architecture.

Aside from Kelly's recruitment experience she is an innovator and creator within branding and social media.

Kelly always gives her 100% during work, but also enjoys the occasional glass of red with her husband at their home in Spain and walking their 3 rescue pups.
