Before working in recruitment, Laura gained experience within Client Services, firstly working with publishers in the world of book printing. She also worked within professional education, which involved account management with clients such as Morgan Stanley, HSBC, and KPM.

Since joining RGH, she has worked within various sectors, including Business Support, Finance, and, most recently, Digital Marketing. Her clients include DWP, Shopiango, and Hyperoptics, to name a few. She thoroughly enjoys working with her B-Corp and Charity Clients recruiting for their Marketing, Client Success, Partnership, and New Business roles.

Laura works from her home in Kent. She lives with her husband, two children, and their Cockapoo - all of whom keep her busy alongside her flexible and exciting role with RGH.
